

Green Building Finance and Investments: Practice, Policy and Research

Maastricht, The Netherlands
March 23 & 24, 2011

Join this conference for an exchange of insights and knowledge from investors, corporations and governments on green building finance and investments!

Registration now open! Visit conference.epri.eu for registration, hotel and travel details.

Registration includes sessions, networking lunches, dinner at Château Neercanne and conference materials including your own copy of Climatopolis.

Background

Maastricht University and the University of California at Berkeley are collaborating to host a series of symposiums on green building finance and investments. We are pleased to announce the second symposium, taking place on March 23 & 24, 2011, in Maastricht, the Netherlands. You are cordially invited for a discussion on green building finance from the perspectives of investors, corporations, government, and academia. This symposium offers a stimulating exchange of financial innovations and best practices across a variety of international backgrounds.

Location

Conference: Council Chamber – Provincial Government Building
Networking dinner: Château Neercanne, Maastricht

Program

The two-day event includes:

Practice and Policy Symposium

A discussion among regulators, policy makers, and capital markets' participants on:

- New Instruments to Finance Green Building
- Green Building Technology
- Roles for the Government
- Green Buildings and Corporate Social Responsibility

Academic Research Symposium

Internationally diverse academic experts in green building finance will present their latest research on:

- Performance and Finance of Green Buildings
- Social and Behavioral Aspects of Household Sustainability
- Green Building Developments in Asia

Speakers

International experts in finance, capital markets, engineering, corporate social responsibility, and regulatory policy will participate and present.

Keynotes

- James Cameron, CEO, Climate Change Capital
- Matthew Kahn, Professor, UCLA, and Author of Climatopolis: How Our Cities Will Thrive in the Hotter Future.

Other Speakers include

- Nicholas Harris, CEO, The GPT Group
- Yongheng Deng, Professor, The National University of Singapore
- Scott Henderson, Finance Director, Clinton Climate Initiative
- Rene Buck, CEO, Buck Consultants International

Sponsors

We look forward to your participation!

Piet Eichholtz, Maastricht University, Nils Kok, Maastricht University, John M. Quigley, University of California at Berkeley